The Grand Jury having examined the County Jail and surroundings, reported as follows:

That we find the jail in a filthy and unsanitary condition, especially the cells and jail yard. [This of course, is not intended to cast any reflection on the Sheriff or his family.] We recommend a new toilet for use of the Sheriff's family in the jail. We recommend a thorough scrubbing and cleaning of the cells and corridors of the jail, and whitewashing of walls; that new Locks be placed on all doors where they are needed. From Clinton county comes the melancholy news that Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys are to be scarce and dear this year. While as many as 100,000 more than the usual number were hatched they could not be raised. One farmer states that out of a flock of twenty-six he was able to raise only four. Many reasons are given for the condition of affairs, but no two persons agree. Wild turkeys will also be scarce, although several large flocks have been seen in southern Chilton county. From all over the state comes the same news relative to the scarcity of the fowls.

Mrs. G. E. Dunlap and daughter Mildred, are spending some time at New York, Baenone and Newark, N. J., the guest of her daughter Lena, at the latter place.

Mrs. G. J. Mellott, of Gem, called at the NEWS office a few minutes while in town last Friday.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, fullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratory, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee. Go to your druggist today and get a bottle. If after you have used the entire contents of the bottle you can honestly say that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

And Dewey Is Dead.

Last Sunday morning, Theodore Appleby, who had spent the night in the home of his father-in-law, T. E. Fleming, at Clear Ridge, went to the barn to feed the stock; and, as he looked into the horse stable, to his great surprise, he saw Dewey lying dead. The horse was apparently well in the evening and ate his hay. What was the cause of his death so unexpectedly, will never be known. The last work he did was on Wednesday, when he, with three other horses, driven by Lloyd and David Fleming, took a load of coal for Fleming Brothers' blacksmith shop in McConnellsburg, and since that had been running in pasture and standing in the stable.

Dewey was a good quiet sensible horse—one that could be handled by any child. He was not so foolish as to scare at automobiles and any lady could drive him. He was once owned by John Sheets in McConnellsburg, and many passengers were conveyed across the mountain by him.

MONEY COMES IN BUNCHES

A. A. Canisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for stomach, liver, kidneys, blood and nerves. 50c at Trout's drug store.
